THREE STAR BACKS OF EASTERN GRIDIRONS ARE THERE WITH TOE

Left to right: Wilcox of Harvard, Driggs of Princeton and (bottom) Legore of Yale.

Three eastern football stars who are getting lots of attention from critics are Wilcox, Driggs and Legore, all of whom are giving their teams great strength in the backfield. Wilcox, though the least celebrated of the three, has developed remarkably since the first of the season.

AGGIES TO TAKE ROOTING SQUAD

When Big Annual Football Game Is Played With U. of U. Tomorrow.

Salt Lake, Nov. 10.—When the university gridiron team clashes with the Utah Aggies tomorrow at 3 p. m. on Cummings field it will be the fifteenth time these two institutions have met on the gridiron. There are a host of questions to be decided by the game, but first and foremost is the state football championship. In the fourteen contests between the two schools the university teams have won eleven and have tied one. In 1903, the fourth year of the annual games, the Aggies defeated Utah by a 17 to 0 score, and in 1912 they downed the Crimson 21 to 0. In 1912 the contest ended in a 7 to 7 tie. In 1905 the game developed into a general mudslinging fracas between the two teams and in a free for all battle royal among the fans. The Aggie team left the field after Utah had scored a touchdown. Of the eleven battles the university teams have won, in ten of them the Logan boys have not scored against the Crimson. A glance at the dope sheets of these previous games shows that the Crimson eleven have scored a total of 277 points against the Aggies' 59.

Thus far this season the Aggies have been thrice defeated, while the Crimson griders will go into tomorrow's game with a clean slate, having won both of the two games played. The Aggies have been greatly improved, according to reports from the Logan school, and will come out on the field tomorrow an entirely different team from that which went down to defeat in the three previous games of the season.

The only report from Logan, which has been at all of a pessimistic tone, is one received last night, when it was learned that injuries received by Lindquist, the fast Aggie left end, in a scrimmage yesterday may keep him out of the game tomorrow. Information circulated earlier in the week was to the effect that Stubby Peterson, touted to be the best man on the Aggie team, would be unable to play in tomorrow's game, but reports obtained from Logan last night routed this rumor. Peterson, the late reports say, is entirely recovered from his recent injuries and will be in the very best condition to play tomorrow. The news of Peterson's return to the lineup has scattered much optimism in the Aggie camp and the Loganites are now claiming that the Utah boys will have to extend themselves if they expect to cut in on the Aggie pie.

Yesterday Coach Norgren of the Crimsonites gave his men their final regular workout previous to the game and made the statement last night that his men are only in condition to "tear up the turf." Only a light signal practice will be on the program for the Norgrenites today, as the coach is desirous that his men go into the game tomorrow absolutely free from fatigue.

The game will start at 3 p. m. sharp.

Don't forget tomorrow and Sunday only, Madame Petrova in return showing of "The Soul Market," a very delightful melodrama. You surely will enjoy it. Utah. Phone 1800.

WOMAN 84 CASTS HER FIRST BALLOT

Mrs. Annie Wiggs, 84 years of age, holds a unique record of having cast her first vote this year, when she voted in Ogden. Several other persons are noted in Ogden Tuesday were older, but in each instance they had previously cast one or more ballots.

The aged voter is a third cousin of Abraham Lincoln. Her husband was a veteran of the Mexican war and followed General Scott from Vera Cruz to Chapultepec, afterwards enlisting in the Ninth Infantry cavalry and serving during the Civil war. Mrs. Wiggs is now living at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Gebhart, 2621 Barlow avenue.

The big two dollar admission picture "Joffrey" will be shown at the Utah, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for 10 cents only. Phone 1800.
